ARCC Collaborations

AIA Upjohn Award

The AIA Upjohn Research Initiative supports applied research projects that enhance the value of design and professional practice knowledge.

This AIA program funds up to six research grants of $15,000–$30,000 annually for projects completed in a 6-to 18-month period. The funds must be fully matched with hard dollars, with a maximum of 10% allocated for overhead. Grant recipients' research findings and outcomes are published online by AIA.

NO IDENTIFYING INFORMATION – Blind peer review
Deadline August 29, 2019
Grant funding to be allocated to projects related to AIA's priorities for 2019, these include a drive toward design that helps reduce energy use, supports the investment in sustainable buildings, and encourages equitable communities.

Themes: net-zero energy,
            regenerative design,
            sustainable communities
